Steffie was a long-time political activist, ardent feminist, and a talented spokesperson for peace, racial equality, and social justice. A founding member of the Socialist Workers Party in Pittsburgh, and SWP candidate for public office, she later became a member of Solidarity, and of the Green Party. She worked for WNET public television in the early 90's, and was a volunteer activist and occasional broadcaster at Pacifica radio station WBAI. Steffie was a vibrant, passionate, dedicated person, with a quick wit and lively sense of humor. She will be greatly missed by many friends, comrades, and loved ones.
